

Important Notice Regarding Use of Artificial Intelligence and Data Analytics

Please note that Citibank may use artificial intelligence or data analytics (i.e. technologies that assist or replace human decision-making) whilst providing products and services to you, for purposes of risk assessment, statistical, trend analysis and planning; and to make decisions, provide, operate, process and administer your accounts and services.

Effective 1 September 2019, all our Citibank Credit, Ready Credit, Ready Credit SmartCash, Power Cash, and UltraCash Cardmember Agreements will be updated accordingly.

Refer to www.citibank.com.sg/producttncs for more details.

Thank you.
